BEST
COLLABORATION//
KELLY WEARSTLER
X SHANTELL
MARTIN

Leave it to Kelly Wearstler, master of all things cool, to devise one of the most inventive collaborations in recent history. The L.A.-based designer, a leading figure in West Coast style since the 1990s, turned to London-born artist Shantell Martin to build a limited-edition line of one-off items with Martin's signature swirls, dashes and faces drawn onto Wearstler's designs. Together the twosome created clothing (from $125), totes ($495), decorative items and furniture, including the Elliott chair ($4,250), shown here. 8440 Melrose Ave., West Hollywood, 323.895.7880, kellywearstler.com

BEST FURNITURE DESIGNER//
REAGAN HAYES

Reagan Hayes ended 2014 with a bang: the opening of her flagship showroom, Reagan Hayes Inc., at the Pacific Design Center in West Hollywood. "It's a great opportunity for us to showcase my products the way I've always envisioned them," she explains. "I was able to design the space and accessorize it to match my taste." Aside from her own coveted furniture creations (all of which are handcrafted in Los Angeles and start at $3,200), Hayes represents the lines of artists Peter Walker and Amanda Talley. In the coming year, she has her sights set on opening a showroom in New York City while continuing to expand her residential interior design services. Selective about the projects she takes on, the designer's biggest goal for 2015 is "to stay highly involved with design while still spending a lot of time with my three little boys!" But balance is something all great designers master, after all. 8687 Melrose Ave., Suite B300, L.A., 888.380.8642, reaganhayes.com
